Professional Help For Sunset Center

Tomorrow evening the Carmel Cultural Commission will convene to hear recommendations from William Lillyman, professional auditorium manager, regarding the uses of Sunset Center.

Lillyman, Monroe, Louisiana Civic Center manager, was invited here at the request of the commission, and since his arrival Tuesday evening, he has spent two days meeting with commissioners and Sunset Manager Cole Weston.

At the City Council meet-

Council to Study Sunset Policy

Recently the Cultural Commission asked the City Council to submit a report on their interpretation of the policy on rentals and uses at Sunset Center.

As a result, a study was made and the findings were read at last night's Council meeting. However, because of ing last night, Dr. James Gilman told the Council, "We would be delighted to have you all present at the meeting tomorrow evening." Of course, this invitation also is open to the public.

the importance of the question, Councilman Herb Blanks felt that the entire council should meet in a study session to discuss the matter, rather than go strictly on the findings of the 2-man committee.

A public hearing was set for November 8 to consider the drafts of the ordinances on use permits for motels, and rezoning of that property which is in a state of being annexed.

"All In A Good Humor"

Monday, following the judging of the Sandcastle Contest Sunday, the Grand Marshal received a telegram from a Carmel resident which read in part, "We created a masterpiece, authentic in every respect . . . and again in 1967 we went home empty handed except for 4 empty wine bottles, half a loaf of French bread and a set of castle molds . . . gentlemen we was robbed." Signed respectively Loran A. List, Jr.

In response to this telegram, the Marshal and the (Continued on page 16)

Gay Fiesta To Be Held At Carmel Mission on Sunday

A tradition nearly 200 years old will be revived Sunday, October 8 at the Carmel Mission Basilica as some 8,000 persons join in the celebration of the Fiesta de San Carlos de Borromeo. The first such fiesta was held in 1770 following the founding of the Mission by Padre Junipero Serra, and honored the patron saint of the Mission. Since that time the fiesta has been held annually, sometimes on a pitifully small scale, but since 1964 in an increasingly grand manner.

Everyone is cordially invited to attend the fiesta, according to the Most Reverend Harry A. Clinch, auxiliary bishop of the Fresno-Monterey diocese and pastor of the Carmel Mission Basilica. No admission fee is charged, and visitors pay only for what they wish to eat or drink.

A high mass will begin the fiesta at 11 o'clock Sunday, following which there will be a ceremonial procession to the courtyard, where the fun (Continued on page 16)

"Hot Time" Had at Barbecue

With the early afternoon threat of rain having disappeared, more than 200 Carmel merchants enjoyed their annual barbecue under the stars at Saddle Mountain Recreation Park last Thursday evening.

It was a "hot time" all right, not only for the many guests, but was also provided by the Hot Timers, a square dancing group from Salinas. Many of the merchants joined the Hot Timers and when more were needed to fill in a square, they were amply supplied by Bud Allen who "persuaded" the needed partners, by either "gently" pushing them down the slope or "carrying" them to the dance floor.

Frank Potter, a "caller," who has had years of experience in Canada was one of the highlights of the evening when he called one of the more familiar square dances of that area which proved a little confusing to the local group.

The steaks by Larry Sullivan and Vince Colletto were delicious but much of the credit goes to the team of Kay Scott, Bud Allen and Eliot Loomis.

It would be unfair to name the prominent people without naming them all because each one present is in his or her own right a prominent person in Carmel in that he or she is part of the atmosphere that makes up the village and above all wanted to have a day off incognito.

Poolside Luncheon Plans Symphony Fund Drive Soon

Exciting sounds have been issuing from Sunset Auditorium on Monday night rehearsals of the large Monterey County Symphony Orchestra, which will give its first concert October 24.

The Jacks Peak home of Mr. and Mrs. Philip Smith was the setting for the recent poolside luncheon at which plans were made to raise funds for the Monterey County Symphony Association.

Planners were Mrs. Donald Criley, Mrs. Roderick Dewar, Mrs. Rody B. Holt, Mrs. Robert O. McMahan, and Mrs. Carl E. Menneken. Special guests included Jan deJong, new conductor of the Symphony, Michael Rosenker, new concertmaster, and their wives.

The need for financial help from the community for this non-profit organization which adds so much to the cultural life of the area was stressed by Mr. Smith, Fund Committee chairman. For information on how to help the non-profit association, contact the symphony association office, 624-4125 or anyone on the committee.

THEATRE REVUE

GEORGY GIRL starring James Mason and Lynn Redgrave, a Columbia Pictures release, also starring Alan Bates is an ultramodern love story. Lynn plays a shy young woman who desperately seeks an affair and as deliberately erects barriers to prevent it. Mason believes the secret in Lynn's powerful dramatic ability is her short but impressive background as a stage actress.

KING OF HEARTS is a wild tale of a town run by lunatics. You will find out what happens when a town is abandoned by its population in the face of imminent danger and the lunatics in its asylum take over and run it according to their own lights.

The story is by France's noted Daniel Boulanger. It's cast is headed by Alan Bates and is supported by Adolfo Geil who got his come-uppance from James Bond in the recent "Thunderball". The music is by Georges Delerue.

THE FAMILY WAY is a Warner Bros. Seven Arts picture in Technicolor, a story of newly weds whose marriage, in the words of one character in the film, "has taken on". The film is being held over at the Golden Bough Theatre.

Hayley Mills now grown up and displaying marvelous new talents stars in her first married role. Her father, the remarkable and versatile John Mills, stars as her father-in-law, adding another characterization to his already giant portrait gallery.

TO SIR, WITH LOVE is a movie that reminds you of what really warm good movies are like. It is a beautiful movie and perfect from top to bottom with lots of mod action. Sidney Poitier says it is purposeful and warm, moving and humorous and Seventeen Magazine labels it as the "picture of the month."

AN OPEN LETTER TO BUSINESS MEN ABOUT KERR-FM RADIO

FROM BUD ZIMMERMAN, Manager

"Advertising is like the little girl with the curl . . . When she was good she was very good, and when she was bad she was horrid!"

There are many sharp differences between the Kerr audience and average listeners to other radio stations. One difference: the remarkable loyalty of KERR listeners. They are not typical dial - twisters . . . a large percentage of them never listen to other stations. Takes this difference—audience loyalty—add to it other unique differences, such as unusually high incomes, better educations and occupations, and you reach an inescapable conclusion:

KERR should be an integral part of your advertising program in the Salinas-Monterey area.

Boosters Club Commended

Accepting the gift of the refreshment booth at Carmel High School Athletic Field, the Carmel School Board last week voted a resolution of appreciation for the efforts of the Carmel Boosters Club who donated 500 hours of volunteer labor as well as the building materials and equipment to build it. Mr. James Kelsey was leader of the project, and architect Jim Heisinger donated plans.

There was a report of activities in the summer recreation program by Charles Dawson. A total of 510 students completed swimming lessons at the High School pool and 420 at the Valley pool. Sixty-six students completed the Life Saving course. Four Savings Bonds, donated by the Carmel Valley Chamber of Commerce, CV Women's Club, CV Kiwanis Club and CV Lions Club, were awarded the two boys and two girls most proficient in the Life Saving Class at the Carmel Valley Pool.

Swim team participation totalled 123 students with the Diving team winning all dual meets and the tri-county championships. The Cypress Swim Club of Carmel used the Valley pool for practice 5 nights a week.

The inservice teacher workshop in which the new science textbooks currently being used in grades 1 through 8, was reported on by Dr. James Halcomb, director of elementary education for the district. Samples of all the books were displayed for the board members, and there was a demonstration of Science kits.

Discovery, based on observing the data, developing a theory and then testing it is the new "process-inquiry" method, he said.

There was a progress report on the High School Accreditation recommendations made by the Western Association of Schools and Colleges last spring, when the high school was given a two-year accreditation instead of the usual five. Some have been rectified by the hiring of more teachers and better maintenance afforded by passage of the override tax last spring. Others, such as a study to determine the maximum desirable population for the site; to determine why students of high ability are not enrolled for third and fourth-year courses; and the development of a statement of philosophy and operational objectives appropriate to the school, are going forward.

In a closed executive session, the board expelled an 18 year old student for alleged use of drugs, absenteeism, and indifferent scholarship.

Lenore Woolams, talented sculptress and teacher, works on a bust at the Sunset Center work room with her students who come in on Mondays and Thursdays from 1 to 5. Miss Woolams, crippled by polio, brings spiritual help as well as instruction to eight handicapped people who come on Saturday mornings without charge. The Carmel Sculpture Guild, founded by Mrs. Milton Holst, Pebble Beach, and Mrs. Beverly Fitzpatrick, Carmel Valley, is appealing for help in reimbursing Mrs. Woolams for her time, equipment, and rental of space. The finished head is of Camil d'Avenas of Pebble Beach. Cammy is the granddaughter of Mrs. James (Happy Boyce) Parker a student of Lenore Woolams.

Happy Parker tells about her father, William D. Boyce, whose head she has been modeling in clay. Mr. Boyce, a Chicago publisher, was instrumental in bringing Lord Baden Powell to start the American version of the Boy Scouts. He published a penny paper in 1915 which went to Lone Scouts on farms and Indian reservations all over the country. The Scouts wrote to one another through the paper. A Puerto Rican lawyer, once a Lone Scout, wrote Mrs. Parker to ask for a portrait of her father to be placed in a large modern school in Puerto Rico.

Mrs. Parker responded to the Puerto Rico request by modeling a head of her father, which when cast in bronze will be sent to the school. It is seen being prepared for casting, being brushed with sweet oil by Mrs. Woolams so that the plaster won't stick. The brass shims placed in the damp clay model will separate the two halves of the casting. Mrs. Woolams studied with Cleb Derujinsky in New York, Bufano in San Francisco, John Storrs in Chicago and Paris, and recently wood carving with Alex Weygers in Carmel Valley. She has a five foot tall Madonna and Child in Grace Cathedral in San Francisco, done before she was stricken in 1939.

Carmel Art Modes

By Louise Cook

Local Carmel artist Ralph Jacobs has been honored by an exhibit in the Invitational Exhibition of Paintings at the Palace of Fine Arts which opened last week and will remain through October 8th. Mr. Jacob's entry is "Classic Nude." He is entirely self taught and has developed a master's technique in the medium of oil on canvas.

The Jacob's Gallery is at the back of the mall on San Carlos between 7th and 8th. Here, his work is shown exclusively. We have not seen the Invitational Exhibit but have been advised that Nell Walker Warner of Carmel Valley is also represented by one of her floral watercolors.

"Conversation" by De Groat 38" x 50"

The spacious new addition to the Laky Galleries, Ltd. was opened last week with a one man show by George De Groat of Big Sur and Pasadena. This artist endeavors to combine and re-arrange the structure of recognizable subject matter with elements of abstract design. He said, "To develop images that express the essential characteristics of my ideas, and at the same time, provide the viewer with an opportunity to become involved by adding something of his own to the painting."

The show contains over 24 oils and etchings with the emphasis on landscapes and faceless figures. It will continue until October 15.

PARTY PLANS . . .

by Phyllis Jervey

"What is an 'Apple of Love'?"

The French refer to the tomato as a "Pomme d'Amour", and Sir Walter Raleigh is said to have presented this "Apple of Love" to Queen Elizabeth as a token of his affection. When speaking of the fresh tomato a frequent question is whether this is a fruit, a vegetable or a berry. Actually by cultivation and use it is a vegetable, botanically it is a fruit and among fruits it is considered a berry! It originated in South America and migrated to Europe then eventually to our early American colonies. Today California is a major tomato producing state, so let's hurry and provide large juicy red "beef" tomatoes for family and guests while they are at their peak.

Crisp refreshing salads offer the most popular and simplest way to serve raw tomatoes. They can be stuffed, broiled or baked and make wonderful sandwiches. We've selected from a vast choice of recipes to bring you the following tomato concoctions.

Sicilian Tomatoes

Six firm medium tomatoes; 2 green peppers; 1 (4-oz.) can sliced mushrooms, drained; 1 tbsp. finely chopped onion; 2 anchovies, minced; 1 clove garlic; ½ cup Italian dressing; ¼ cup grated Parmesan cheese; ½ cup Ricotta cheese; 1/8 tsp. garlic salt; assorted crackers.

Cut a small slice from the rounded end of each tomato. Scoop out the pulp; discard hard centers, saving ½ cup pulp. Turn tomatoes upside down to drain and chill. Meanwhile roast peppers over low heat until skins are completely blackened. Peel by holding under running water or by wrapping in damp towels. Chop and combine with next 4 ingredients; add dressing to reserved pulp and pour over vegetables. Refrigerate about 5 hours or longer. Sprinkle inside of each tomato with 1 tsp. grated Parmesan cheese. Drain vegetables, remove garlic and spoon mixture into tomato cups. Combine remainder of both cheeses and garlic salt. Spoon on top of filled tomatoes. Serve chilled with assorted crackers. Splendid as a first course. Serves 6.

Corn Chip Stuffed Tomatoes

One medium onion, sliced fine; ½ cup diced celery; 2 tbsps. bacon fat; 1 lb. ground beef; 1 tsp. salt; 1 can tomato sauce; 1 cup crushed corn chips; 8 fresh tomato cups.

Brown onion and celery in hot fat; add ground beef and salt and stir well. Cover and cook mixture 10 minutes. Add tomato sauce and cook until meat is done. Add corn chips and mix well. Fill tomato cups with mixture and bake in 350 F. oven for 25 minutes. Serve hot as a vegetable. Serves 8.

Broiled California Tomatoes

Wash fresh firm tomatoes and cut in half crosswise. Brush cut surfaces with melted butter, sprinkle with salt and pepper and top each with 1 tbsp. drained sweet pickle relish. Broil until heated through and slightly "scorched". Delicious with fish or meat.

Mock Pizzas

Cut English muffins in half and spread with mustard-mayonnaise or mustard-butter mixture. Top each half with a thick slice of tomato, ring of green pepper and onion, each; cover with a slice of cheddar cheese. Place under broiler until muffin half is heated through and cheese is bubbly and light brown. Fine for snacks anytime or to go with a soup-salad luncheon or supper.

Dilled Green Tomato Pickles

Three lbs. medium green tomatoes, washed; 2 cups white vinegar; 2 tbsps. salt; 3 cloves garlic, peeled and split; 5 fresh dill sprigs, or 2 tps. dried dill weed.

Sicilian-style cold stuffed tomatoes make an excitingly crisp first course any time.

atoes and cut each into 6 wedges; set aside. Sterilize 5 pint jars; leave in hot water until ready to fill. In small saucepan, combine vinegar with 1 cup water and the salt; bring to boiling. Reduce heat; simmer, uncovered, 5 minutes. Add tomatoes; bring to just boiling. Remove from heat. With slotted spoon, quickly ladle tomatoes into hot sterilized jars. To each jar, add half a garlic clove and a dill sprig or ½ tsp. dried dill. Fill with vinegar mixture to within ½ inch from top. Cap at once and seal tightly. Store in cool place.

In case our backyard tomatoes don't mature and ripen before frost sets in, we'll make the above green tomato pickles!

Three internationally known musicians, Rosario Mazzeo, clarinetist, Jascha Veissi, who will play viola and violin, and Katie Clare Mazzeo, pianist, will give their first concert on October 12 at Sunset Auditorium.

Mazzeo, Boston Symphony member from 1933 to 1966, has had solo parts written for him by Hindemith, Piston, Schuman and Harris. Veissi, who plays a 16th Century viola dated 1540, was former concertmaster of the San Francisco Opera Orchestra and member of the famed Coolidge Quartet. Mrs. Mazzeo has studied with Schnabel, Nadine Boulanger and has toured in the United States and Canada.

Tickets may be purchased at the Carmel Bach Festival office for the concert for which the artists are donating their fees to the Arts Coordinating Council of Monterey County.

Carmel Rotary to Sponsor "Interact" Club at Stevenson School

Under the sponsorship and direction of the Carmel Rotary Club, an "Interact" Club is being formed at the R.L.S. with plans to build a school in Costa Rica.

At the regular Wednesday luncheon yesterday, members of the new club and their sponsor presented details of the fund drive being conducted by the boys to buy materials that would be used in the self-help program initiated by the International Rotary Clubs.

This project is of such importance that the Student Council has sponsored its formation at R.L.S. Student President Claude Wynn reported on the enthusiastic response of the students to this "people-to-people" project, as well as their great progress in many other areas of school life. "Interact" secretary is Tom Gardner, with liaison student Rick Johnson, who is from Costa Rica. Campus sponsor is Mr. Will Shaad, a resident counselor and Spanish instructor.

Wynn reported that the ultimate hope of the student council is that a small group of R.L.S. students might visit the school when completed. All labor is provided by the Costa Ricans, with supplies and tools being given through the "Interact" fund drive. Other activities of the club include viewing educational films, correspondence with student groups in other countries, and an exchange of project ideas.

Folk Concert Saturday at R.L.S.

"The Four Outside" folk group will present a full-length concert at the Stevenson School this Saturday evening at 8:00 p.m. "The Four Outside" are directed by Marvin Payne, an 18 year old composer and singer. With him are Vicki Bertagnoli, soprano, James Mairs with the guitar, and Philip Crowley on bass. Many of the works were written by the group, all of whom were members of the Hidden Valley Music Seminar this summer (Held at the Stevenson School).

Their record, just finished on Cutsom Fidelity label, will be available at the concert. "The Four" began their association in Los Angeles some four years ago and they have had several successful engagements throughout Southern California plus television appearances.

The concert, open to the public, will be held in Reid Hall with an admission charge of $1.00. No reservations are necessary.

Joan Baez Sunday Vespers Speaker

The noted folk singer, Joan Baez, will be the featured speaker at the Sunday Vespers service at R.L.S. starting at 6:30 p.m. in the Erdman Memorial Chapel. Student leader of the program will be Bruce Decker. A morning Communion service at 9:30 a.m. is also open to the public and is conducted by School chaplain, Rev. C. E. Wilson.

Late News on Merit Scholarships

National Merit Scholarship Semi-finalists have just been announced for R.L.S. Honored were Robert Howard, William Kondrat (Napa), Steve Russell (Oxnard), Allan Johnson, and Mike Green. Details next week!

Carmel Author Doris Gates

Doris Gates, award winning juvenile writer, really belongs to Carmel now that she lives in the home she built on the stunning site at Wildcat Cove, Carmel Highlands, purchased in 1954. That was a "good year" when "Little Vic" won the William Allen White Award based on the votes of Kansas children for their favorite book of the year.

Her home, which Will Shaw, A.I.A., designed, and which "has been a joy from the first moment" is on a high cliff overlooking the turbulent water from Wildcat Creek as it churns its way past rocks and boulders down into the Pacific. Shaw showed great "sensitivity for the site," she thought, and "set the house among six cypress trees without losing a tree." "Sarah's Idea" was Doris Gates' first book, written while she was director of the children's department of the Fresno Library. "Blue Willow," for which she won the silver medal of the Commonwealth Club, was based on her experiences with the migrant children there. This was also a runner up for the Newbury Medal.

Later she was on the faculty at San Jose State College in San Jose where she was born. This led to co-authorship of three series of Ginn Basic Readers, textbooks adopted by the state.

When she is not writing, Doris Gates devotes her time to lecturing around the United States on children's reading and literature. She works with informal groups of teachers to teach them the art of story telling. They work on delivery with tape recorders so that the story tellers may hear how they sound. She is frequently invited to schools and libraries to tell stories.

She considers listening to stories very stimulating to children's minds. They have to do the imagining and picturing.

The Greek myths and legends, and other folk tales were of great significance to her as a child. Coleridge, she said, felt that the vastness of the cosmos was acceptable because of having read folk literature as a child. "He was attuned to the sense of the infinite. The sky was not the limit." Also, she said, "Out of fantasy springs empathy between people."

As a visiting celebrity, she is kept a bit busy: "The world wags around you."

Actor Michael Keller Goes on Location

Once again it's Hollywood for Michael Keller of Carmel, as he has accepted a role in Elvis Presley's latest movie, "Stay Away From Joe" which is to be filmed on location at Sedona, Arizona.

Former director at the Studio Theatre Restaurant in Carmel, and professional actor before serving in the Army, Mike takes the part of a used car salesman, "Orville Witt." He describes the scenes in which he works opposite Presley as being funny and very unusual. Presley supposedly buys an automobile and sells it back to the car salesman piece-meal... first the bumper, then the doors and so on until the crowning scene when he brings in the motor to sell. "Sounds crazy," Mike said, "but it's really very funny."

After Mike returned from Hollywood last week, he said that the part initially was much smaller, but the producers liked it so much that they combined two parts to make the three scenes he is playing.

Co-owner of the Blouse Boutique in the Crichton Court, Mike gave the Pine Cone a brief glimpse into Hollywood production procedures. Crews are sent out on location months before the cast to photograph background scenes. Artists take over from there and sketch the set over the photograph. From this the director works out his camera shots.

Mike promised that when he returns from the week's shooting on location, he will fill us in on other interesting details.

All Bavaria joins in Oktoberfest each year, together with visitors from all over Germany and the rest of the world. It is Europe's largest festival and is held on the Theresienwiese Fairground in Munich, where the theme is always, "Eins, zwei, g'suffa!"

Members of the local German-American colony are assisting the Inn's staff in preparations. Hans Von Richter, Chairman of the German Language Department at the DLI has been very helpful in this regard, as has the German Consulate in San Francisco, Lufthansa Airlines, Lowenbrau and others.

AMERICAN OF MARTINSVILLE

Different! Refreshing! Fun! That's the instant reaction of everyone who sees this delightful new design that fills a room with function! Interlaken takes its name from the famous Swiss resort, its design inspiration from the cultural and architectural forms of Switzerland. For the young queen of the house, choose a brushed, off-white finish with dusty-blue accents and matching blue Formica tops. For big brother (or guest room and den), the casual character of Interlaken's tawny-toned pecan treatment, with its heraldic shield hardware, its slate-colored, leather-textured Formica tops. And all of it is so easy to care for, as great for special arrangements as it is big on space and storage! Big on value, too... come see how little it takes to fill a room with real fashion!

3 BEDROOMS, 2 BATHS, STUDIO, $28,500
This older Carmel cottage has a very charming living room and dining room, each large, each with fireplace. Other features include a secluded, brick patio, a separate studio, an oversized corner lot, 3 bedrooms (or 2 and den), 2 baths, and a low price of $28,500. Shown any time.

A 2-BEDROOM JEWEL ON CARMEL POINT
This almost new house is small, but the quality is tops. It doesn't lack desirable features. It has 2 baths, a SEPARATE DINING ROOM, kitchen with dishwasher, etc., cathedral ceilings, sunny protected patio and delightful easy-care garden. What more can you ask? It's priced at $55,000, and we doubt you could replace it for any less.

3 BEDROOMS — OCEAN VIEW — $50,000
What's more, this Rancho Rio Vista home, on over an acre of land, has a fine view of Point Lobos AND the Valley, DOESN'T overlook the shopping center, has 2 baths and a protected patio. This house can't last long.

A DIVIDABLE 2-ACRE LOT—$17,500
Sounds impossible at this low figure—it almost is, but we actually have a 2.18-acre lot in Rancho Rio Vista that we believe can easily be subdivided into TWO LEGAL BUILDING SITES. Call for details.

Kathy Aldrich Married in Nepal

Another Peace Corps marriage took place recently when Kathy Aldrich married Robert Douglas Wolfe in Nepal on September 15.

"The ceremony was very beautiful and spontaneous," she wrote her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Harold Aldrich. "Doug and I each said a few words about how we felt about each other... no trivia and no clichés. A friend provided a huge basket of flowers so that everyone could have one."

Then they had a procession led by a six piece Nepal band down the streets of Kathmandu. After the reception there were numerous dinners at one of which they were given a cake, "a four tiered masterpiece with various fruits between the layers and a gorgeous chocolate icing."

"Making all the arrangements was quite an experience" involving interpreters and much bargaining. Kathy's dress was made of "magnificent Chinese silk, red-orange with a golf flower pattern woven into the material." When the tailor heard she was getting married he finished it in two days. Their rings were made from melted down British Guinea coins.

Graduate of Carmel schools and University of California at Davis, Kathy did some graduate work at the University of Guadalajara. She recently completed a six weeks Peace Corps training course at her alma mater. Doug is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Robert D. Wolfe of Portland, Oregon. The couple will work in Janakpur teaching vocational skills.

After Theatre Gala

Half a hundred guests in high spirits went on from the gala opening of "Arms and the Man" at the Circle Theatre recently to the midnight supper given by Mrs. Jane Edson Parker in her Mesa Drive home, honoring Director-producer Norman McPhee, the cast set designer Derek Lawford, the back stage crew and the officers of the Community Theatre of Monterey Peninsula.

Mrs. Parker with her co-hostess, Mrs. Hans von Richter greeted the guests in the candle-lit drawing room where two great refectory tables sparkled with crystal and silver and tempting delicacies.

Toasts were tendered Nick Hopick who appeared in the Shaw comedy as the "chocolate cream soldier" and Anita Whitaker, as the beautiful "Raina", also honored were the Misses Gerta and Pauline Popoff, daughters of Mr. and Mrs. George Popoff of Carmel who loaned their native Bulgarian treasures for the play's settings.

Officers of the theatre's board of governors who attended the party included: Brig. General Francis Hill, president, with Mrs. Hill, Mrs. Allan Weinfield, treasurer, with Colonel Weinfield, vice-presidents Robert Heaton and Mrs. John Hicks, with Mr. Hicks.

Down and Up

Down from Atherton and up from Santa Monica were a quartet of interesting guests at the Gerald V. Barron's during the week of the Bar Convention. Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Tibbitts spent Tuesday and Wednesday at the Barrons' Yankee Point home. Newly-weds, Mr. and Mrs. Benjamin Rolfe arrived on Friday for the weekend.

BIRTHS

Kristen Regina, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Roger F. Chatterton, Carmel, September 19.

Gala Fiesta

will begin. There will be a chicken barbecue, tacos, enchiladas, and wine tasting, beer drinking, and a host of entertaining games.

The Amparo group of Spanish dancers, known professionally as 'El Cuadro Espanol,' and a band of strolling mariachis led by Marty Artellan will provide adult entertainment for the fiesta, while the younger set will twist to the rhythms of the '37 Scence' at a teen age dance to be held in Crespi Hall.

While the fiesta is designed primarily as a non-profit undertaking, any sums left over after expenses have been met will be used for youth programs of the Mission parish, according to John Calcagno, general chairman of the fiesta committee.

"In Good Humor"

Sand Committee, in good humor as was the telegram, have prepared a special "sour grapes award" which will be presented to Mr. List in his office in Monterey.

Grand Marshal Donald Brown said List had competed for three years and has not won a prize yet, even though he has "worked terribly hard." Brown hastened to add, "It's all in good humor."

Council to Study

Way, after Carmel's first mayor. This will eliminate any confusion between the County's 14th Street and the city's, which is in the same general location.

The Council approved the City Clerk and the Mayor negotiate a lease for property at Lincoln and 6th Street where the library will establish a childrens annex.
